RE: Educational Booths at the Chowan County Regional Fair

The 2024 Chowan County Regional Fair is almost here! The dates of the 2024 fair are September 24th – September 28th. The theme is “Tea, Pigs and Patriots”. This theme is in celebration of the 250th anniversary of the Edenton Tea Party. The fair board extends to you the opportunity to construct an educational booth using this theme. This is an excellent time to educate and better acquaint the public with your organization.

Please find the rules and regulations for educational booths listed below. If there are any questions, please contact Camaryn Byrum at cibyrum@ncsu.edu or 252-482-6585. Upon reading the rules and regulations, any organization wishing to participate must submit a request form by September 13th, 2024.

2024 Rules and Regulations for Educational Booths at the Chowan County Regional Fair (Rules and Regulations provided by the Chowan County Regional Fair Board)

- Educational booth spaces are open to the following organizations and groups in Northeastern North Carolina:
  - 4-H Clubs/ County Programs, FFA, FHA, or other high school or college vocational displays
  - Elementary, middle and high schools located in the region
  - Extension Homemakers, Commodity Groups, Farm Organizations
  - Community, educational, civic, or volunteer group activities
    - If there are any questions about your group’s eligibility, please contact Camaryn Byrum at cibyrum@ncsu.edu or 252-482-6585.
- All educational booths must portray the theme of the fair and include the name of the sponsoring school or organization somewhere in the booth.
- Booths MUST have an educational message and not solely promote an organization.
- All booths must be in place by 5:00pm on Saturday, September 21st, 2024.
- Judging will take place on Monday, September 23rd, 2024.
- Booths are tabletop exhibits with three sides constructed of plywood.
  - Dimensions are 6 feet wide x 3 feet deep x 4 feet high.
- Educational booths shall not be manned; hand distribution of literature is not permitted and the selling of raffle tickets or other items is not allowed. Appropriate literature may be placed in your booth for pick up.

- Displays may be fastened to the booth by ¼ inch staples or double-sided mounting tape (masking, duct, or double-sided tape will NOT hold all week). No large staples, nails, or screws are permitted.
- The exhibitor must provide all tools, supplies, stepladders, or other equipment needed to construct the booth.
- The booth front and floor must be completely covered with paper or fabric. The booth must have an attractive, finished look.
- No decorations or skirting is to be placed in the area from the tabletop to the floor. The fair board will cover that space once all booths are in place.
- Each educational booth must remain intact and in place for the duration of the fair.
- Booth takedown and removal of all materials must be completed on Sunday, September 29th, 2024 between 8:00am – 5:00pm. The Chowan County Regional Fair Board will take down any booths that are not removed by this time. Unclaimed items are not the responsibility or liability of the Chowan County Regional Fair Board, NC Cooperative Extension, or the Educational Booth Chairman.
- ALL tape, staples, other fasteners, etc. must be removed from the partitions and back wall of the booth. Non-removal of these items may forfeit premium earnings and/or future participation.
- Educational booths should avoid specific political issues or partisan issues. The educational booth should not be used as a political platform. Promoting, advertising, or endorsement of candidates is not allowed.
- Religious organizations will be assigned end caps of booth rows on a rotating basis depending on interest, and are limited to no more than three per year. These displays will not be judged. Those wishing to have a full booth should contact the Commercial Booth Chair.
